

WELCOME FALL!

As we embrace the crisp air and vibrant colors of fall, we are also mindful of the upcoming National Day for Truth and Reconciliation. This is a time to reflect on our shared history and commit to the path of understanding and healing. Join us in acknowledging the significance of this day as we welcome the season of transformation and growth.

— NATIONAL DAY FOR — TRUTH & RECONCILIATION

SEPTEMBER 30

One Queen Street East would like to respectfully acknowledge that we are on the traditional territory of many nations including the Mississaugas of the Credit, the Anishnabeg, the Chippewa, the Haudenosaunee and the Wendat peoples. Today it is home to many diverse First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples. We acknowledge that this land is covered by Treaty 13 signed with the Mississaugas of the Credit, and the Williams Treaties signed with multiple Mississaugas and Chippewa bands.

September 30th is a day to pause in respect of all Indigenous people of this country. A day to learn more about the history and ongoing legacy of residential schools, and to listen to the stories of survivors and their families.

WE ENCOURAGE YOU TO USE THIS DAY TO LISTEN & SUPPORT INDIGENOUS VOICES, & TO HAVE IMPORTANT CONVERSATIONS ABOUT HOW WE CAN COLLECTIVELY TAKE ACTION IN OUR COMMUNITY.

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT!

Our Basic Bike Maintenance took place on August 6th, 2025, outside the Southwest corner of Queen St. E. and Victoria St., and was a great success. We covered topics including safety checks, assessing air pressure and flat tires, tightening brakes, lubing chain, and ensuring your bike is the right fit. We look forward to holding such events in the future so stay tuned!

Destination Toronto has published the 2025 edition of the Toronto Visitor Map, which includes the spring 2025 edition of the PATH map.

New in this edition of the PATH map:

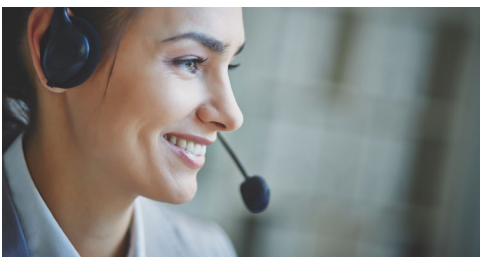

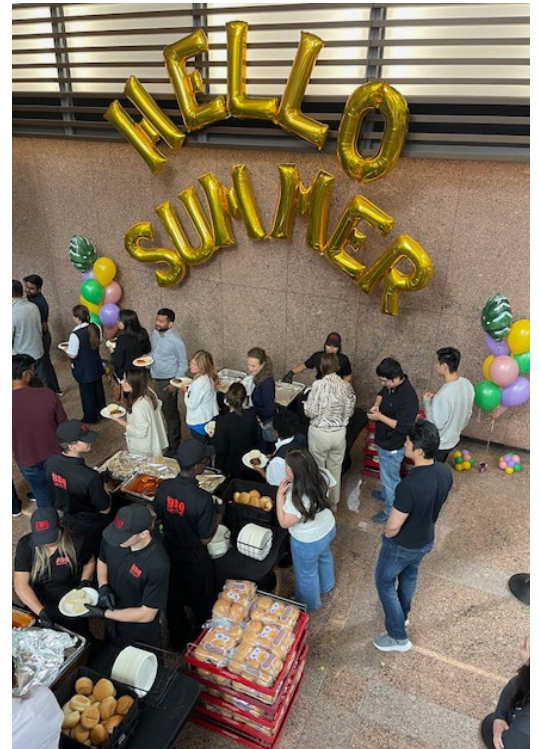

- Improved routing at Union Station to better represent food court and main pedestrian routes
- Improved routing at CIBC SQUARE to reflect final layout expected this year
- Consistent application of food court and retail icons
- Building name updates
- Inclusion of additional exits/entrances that are signed on the street or in the PATH
- Minor routing updates to reflect expected or actual layouts

The maps also include a neighbourhood map of the city and a points-of-interest map of downtown. If you would like to order a box of 630 maps, please contact Dave Perry of the Visitor Economy Office at David.C.Perry@toronto.ca

The latest versions of the PATH map are also always available at the Financial District BIA's website and can be identified by the version code at the bottom-right.

Thank you!
